MARKET SUMMARY:

The fall of polish yields continued in August. The 10 year fell by 35bp, the 5 year by 20bp and the 3 year by 13bp, so the yield became even more flatter. The inflation rate dropped from 2,9% to 2,8%, which was the market expectation, but it is still higher than the government target of 2,5%. The GDP growth was cut from previous levels, so the expectation now is 4,2% in 2019, 3,5% in 2020 and 3% in 2021. In the second quarter the GDP grew YoY by 4,5%, which was higher than the expected 4,4%, but it is still showing the signs of a slowdown, because in the previous quarter it was 4,7%. The PMI grew from 47,4 to 48 which was better than the forecasted 47,6. The industrial output improved too from the very weak 2,7 level, to 5,8. Regarding the budget the accumulated deficit of the first 7 months was 4783 million PLN, which means that the government generated a 258 million PLN surplus. In addition, the government announced that target for next year is a balanced budget. The zero deficit will likely be achieved by one-off items, that slightly deteriorates the otherwise quite optimistic picture. During the month we could capitalize on market turbulence due to our active management.
